Student Services at the Pembroke Waterfront Campus

Admissions - Room 131

Emily Quenneville, Sean Roche, & Alana Chaput

Our Admissions staff are available to assist you from the day your application arrives at the College to well past graduation day, helping to make the process as easy as possible. They retain and safeguard your academic records. Whether you need to add or drop a course, are looking into course requirements or transfer requests, they're here to help!

For more information about admission requirements or registration questions, please visit our Pembroke Campus Admissions Staff page or call 613-735-4700.

Financial Aid - Room 134

Laura Julien

Financial worry can be a stressful experience and Laura can help make that journey a little easier. She can assist you with questions regarding federal and provincial student loans as well as with applying for bursaries and awards that are available to our students. Laura can also provide you with information on budgeting or special financial planning. Students are asked to email their questions to julienl@algonquincollege.com and include the following details: full name, program name, student number, and phone number.

Disabilities Counsellor - Room 137

Steven Sheinfeld

The Disabilities Counsellor helps students with both temporary and permanent disabilities by working with them and faculty to try and remove the barriers that could prevent them from having equal educational opportunities. Steven works with students with various kinds of disabilities including: chronic pain, hearing impairment, learning & memory disabilities, etc.

Learning Strategist - Room 137

Sheila O'Brien

The Learning Strategist works with students to assist with projects, study skills, and getting organized (making schedules and keeping track of important dates and assignments). No referral is necessary to meet with Sheila.

Co-Op Education Support - Room 141

Cara-Lynne Ryan Auld

Our Co-op Support Officer will be glad to assist you with: résumé and cover letter writing, interview preparation, networking, LinkedIn tips, access to job postings.

Indigenous Services

Indigenous Student Support Officer - Sherry Dion

Elder in Residence - Aimee Bailey

The goal of the Indigenous Services is to empower and support Indigenous students at Algonquin College into the next phase of their lives (mino-biimaadizwin — “the good way of life”) in a way that is respectful and reflective of Indigenous cultures.

For more information on Indigenous services & resources visit:

<https://www.algonquincollege.com/pembroke/indigenous-services/>

Health Services - Room 127

Laurie Ann Klawitter, RN

Health Services is open to all students Monday-Friday from 8:30-4:00. Appointments are encouraged, but walk in appointments are welcome and will be seen based on availability. Contact 613-735-4700, ext. 2748 or email klawitl@algonquincollege.com for more information.

Assistive Technologist - Room 136

Lorrita McKnight

The Assistive Technologist works with students to find the right technology and software to help them succeed in their studies, and trains them to use the technology. This technology could be either assistive devices, or apps such as screen readers or note-taking applications.

Library - Room 145

Patricia Kim, Maureen Sampson, & Sara Lehnen

Algonquin College Libraries work collectively to support learning and teaching by providing reliable resources and services to students, faculty, staff, and community users. Our Library Team provides access to books, periodicals, digital resources, and study guides, along with trained guidance and beautiful study spaces with natural light. The Library is also home to our Student Support Lab Coach. To reach the library email: illpemb@algonquincollege.com.

Student Support Lab Coach - Room 145B Library

Nicole Shaw

The Student Support Lab is a free service which provides students with one-on-one or small group support, In-person or virtually, in the following subject areas: English, APA Citing & Referencing, ESL, Math, Statistics, Biology, Anatomy & Physiology, Basic Sciences, and Basic Computer Skills. Appointments of up to one hour may be booked online at www.algonquincollege.com/pembroke/student-support-lab. Bookings can be made up to two weeks in advance.

Counselling - Room 138

Shannon Sevigny

Counselling is a vital part of Student Services offering a confidential service to support students in matters related to academic, career, and personal success. Some of the areas may include: adjusting to college life; accessing resources; managing school, stress, and life challenges; social and family relationship issues; developing academic study skills and career decision making skills; and improving communication.

Student Success Specialist Team

Dan Cuddy - Student Success Specialist

Shawna Enright - International Student Success Specialist

Throughout a student's Algonquin College experience, the Student Success Specialist fosters relationships between the student and the College. This empowers the student to make informed decisions, access resources, and obtain supports to guide them in their educational or career pathway.
